The Swift collection

Since 1984, we have been making unique curtain poles, finials and accessories that bring your window treatments to life.

Welcome to our Swift Collection which includes two ranges of wooden decorative poles, the Delano and the Chalfont.
Both ranges come in a selection of finishes in 35mm and 45mm diameters and are all hand-finished in our North London workshop.

Swift is a the perfect addition to our already large range of decorative and bespoke products and offers fresh new designs delivered with zest and speed.

DELANO

Taking a modern twist on traditional detailing and finishes, emphasising the elegance of nature in the structure of the Ashwood used. The shapes are delicately modern and minimalist blending with the wood finishes and the natural grains in a tastefully curated colour palette of finishes.

We aim to ensure everything in our brochure is as accurate as it can be, But of course, sometimes colours and finishes may be slightly different due to the printing process and therefore it's always best to see a sample which we are happy to provide. All descriptions and sizes are correct at the time of going to print but may change in the future.
